Q3 How would you describe the Roseway neighborhood to others?

Answered: 169 Skipped: 16

#	Responses	Date
1	I am new to Roseway, but have lived in Portland for 20 years. I like the people I have met and feel at home. Seems like many of the streets I have walked have a mix of long time residents and new families- lots of gardeners. The upkeep on the majority of early and mid-century homes is good, and seems that new residents are preserving and renovating.	2/7/2014 4:06 PM
2	Trustworthy and friendly. Always willing to lend a hand.	1/9/2014 10:51 AM
3	A great NE Portland nook. We love the parks, Roseway heights school, & some of the small businesses like Roseway theater. We don't like the 82nd fringe element & crime.	11/11/2013 11:10 AM
4	In desperate need of stop signs.	11/10/2013 2:09 PM
5	Where not only do neighbors know each other's names, they know the names of their neighbors's dogs.	11/5/2013 10:29 AM
6	Walkable. Friendly.	11/5/2013 6:12 AM
7	A family centered neighborhood. Very walkable, with public transportation, groceries and restaurants nearby. Nice parks.	11/4/2013 8:02 PM
8	Convenient quite diverse	11/4/2013 8:01 PM
9	Quiet, safe, respectful	11/4/2013 7:19 PM
10	Mixed family. Older, but turning to younger families. Close to the golf course, airport.	11/4/2013 6:57 PM
11	I have described Roseway as likely having been a middle class family neighborhood at some point. It is now a hodgepodge of rentals, first time home buyers, families and some less than desirable characters. It has a ton of potential and can provide affordable homeownership. It is basically safe but where we are (74th) it butts up against a not very good area, particularly 82nd. Not wild about a strip club on our corner.	11/4/2013 5:30 PM
12	Family/pet friendly	11/4/2013 5:26 PM
13	Friendly	11/4/2013 4:36 PM
14	Quiet	11/4/2013 4:25 PM
15	Family-friendly, mixed socio-economic levels	11/4/2013 3:55 PM
16	quiet, un-hip, families, almost suburban feeling	11/4/2013 3:20 PM
17	Convenient. Not inspiring. Great Vietnamese places.	11/4/2013 2:55 PM
18	mostly older homes, mostly owner-occupied, I've heard the neighborhood referred to as "blue collar" or "working class"; easy walk to transit, stores, theater; strong neighborhood association. We have WAY TOO MANY commercial trailers parked on our neighborhood streets-painting companies, etc. etc. City parking rules forbid street storage of such trailers... hard to get around them, hard to see around them when driving.	11/4/2013 2:48 PM
19	A family neighborhood.	11/4/2013 2:34 PM
20	A well kept secret	11/4/2013 1:54 PM
21	An unpretentious stable neighborhood with a lot of good people.	11/4/2013 1:45 PM
22	Friendly, vibrant, home.	11/4/2013 1:30 PM
23	Quiet, eclectic, family friendly	11/4/2013 12:44 PM
24	diverse, established, friendly, walkable	11/4/2013 12:28 PM
25	Lovely! I am really enjoying living here.	11/4/2013 11:54 AM
26	Quaint until all the Marijuana clubs opened up.	11/4/2013 11:45 AM
27	Very quiet and friendly. Very easy to walk to shops, stores and restaurants, yet still affordable housing.	11/4/2013 11:38 AM
28	nice with a little grit around the edges, quiet	11/4/2013 11:26 AM
29	diverse. conveniently located. fairly quiet, although there are signs of creeping problems.	11/4/2013 11:25 AM

37	neighborly, up & coming	11/3/2013 6:39 PM
38	A working class friendly neighborhood.	11/1/2013 1:31 AM
39	A great place to live!	10/30/2013 10:49 AM
40	Beautiful, run down in places. Lots of young families. Lack of will for urban renewal. Not one coffee shop worth bringing the neighborhood together for. Run down asian storefronts. Easy to commute to other neighborhoods. Great people. Mixed bag as you can tell from my description	10/28/2013 9:31 PM
41	Small diverse neighborhood. Slowly getting nicer. More young people moving in.	10/20/2013 9:09 PM
42	We have great neighbors! We do have crime near by and my neighbors and I are working hard to get them out of the neighborhoods. I love the community feel...	10/20/2013 9:15 AM
43	Roseway neighborhood is a diverse neighborhood, family heavy. The homes vary as much, making it a true working class neighborhood.	10/19/2013 12:37 PM
44	Not fashionable, but I like it	10/17/2013 1:27 PM
45	racially & culturally diverse area, friendly neighbors, mostly modest but well-kept homes, but in our case - proximity to 82nd brings crime & noise.	10/13/2013 10:46 AM
46	Quiet, walkable, a hidden pocket	10/12/2013 9:45 AM
47	Nice pocket in NE Portland with convenient access to many nearby neighborhoods.	10/11/2013 9:57 PM

49	A nice mix of residential and business. Up and coming. Mix of young and old.	10/10/2013 1:20 PM
50	Suburban area that is within the city proper with an easy commute to downtown.	10/10/2013 12:33 PM
51	Close-in NE; walk to everything (grocery, movies, library, school, park, etc.); diverse; strong Vietnamese presence; friendly, smart, caring neighbors.	10/9/2013 1:45 PM
52	Pleasant. Lovely homes with creatively gardened lawns/yards. Quiet. People are out and about, mostly on foot or bike - running or walking.	10/8/2013 3:46 PM
53	Along the ugly part of Sandy Blvd. Near Annie's Doughnuts & Trader Joe's.	10/8/2013 9:52 AM
54	A neighborhood that's in transition...a lot of younger people moving in. Great neighborhood with lots of nice people. It's quieter than we expected for living so close to Sandy Blvd.	10/8/2013 8:02 AM
55	Friendly, walkable neighborhood with cute vintage homes.	10/6/2013 10:02 PM
56	Quiet streets conveniently located to major thoroughfares.	10/6/2013 8:24 PM
57	Easy access to businesses to satisfy everyday needs and activities.	10/6/2013 6:40 PM
58	It is a changing neighborhood. A lot of older neighbors are moving out and younger couples are coming in. My street seems to be a freeway with cars going over the speed limit.	10/6/2013 3:24 PM
59	Quiet	10/6/2013 8:35 AM
60	Great/safe neighborhood that's more affordable than those a little to the east and a little to the south. You get all the same benefits for a better home price.	10/6/2013 6:33 AM
61	Working class people in fairly modest homes. It's a quiet neighborhood (not much traffic or car noise, not much industrial noise). Roseway is often overlooked and unknown to others in the city.	10/5/2013 9:23 PM
62	Very friendly.	10/2/2013 7:31 PM

Roseway Neighborhood

63	A bit gritty, lots of families with young children, lots of fixer homes on the mend, great place to buy ingredients for Asian recipes, friendly, diverse.	10/1/2013 10:34 PM
64	Neat, tidy, centrally located. It doesn't have the plethora of restaurants that a lot of other NE neighborhoods do, but the main point I stress is the neighborhood's potential.	10/1/2013 12:08 PM
65	Quiet and very conveniently located. Basic services available, but that is about it. No real destination point or center.	10/1/2013 10:27 AM
66	A great place to live. Very liberal neighborhood with lots of great people.	9/30/2013 9:46 PM
67	Wonderful, family friendly	9/30/2013 3:54 PM
68	Quiet, family-friendly, very walkable, easy access to parks and great restaurants. Similar feel to Laurelhurst and Rose City neighborhoods.	9/29/2013 1:49 PM
69	Pretty good socio-economic diversity, somewhat racially/culturally diverse, great school because involved parents, not snobby, not shabby. Good trees. Quiet, friendly neighborhoods.	9/13/2013 8:19 PM
70	A quiet "drive-thru" neighborhood with a nice movie theater, and a few decent businesses, and some parks... it's "nice."	9/13/2013 5:02 PM
71	Working class neighborhood with a great library, schools and parks. Easy access to most of NE Portland and freeways. With Sandy, Fremont, and 82nd there is some crime, prostitution, and street people but it's not a particularly dangerous or scary neighborhood.	9/13/2013 3:34 PM
72	family-friendly, not trendy	9/13/2013 2:57 PM
73	Nice and quiet, but located on the border of a bad area (82nd Ave.)	9/13/2013 2:23 PM
74	Quiet	9/13/2013 12:59 PM
75	Friendly	9/13/2013 12:50 PM
76	Parts of the neighborhood still have old-world charm, and quiet nooks are plenty. The neighborhood cohesiveness is interrupted by Sandy Blvd and 82nd Avenue's busy and somewhat depressed feel.	9/13/2013 11:35 AM
77	Close to downtown. Nice neighbors and good transportation	9/13/2013 11:33 AM
78	Nice well kept neighborhood	9/13/2013 11:09 AM
79	Where Sandy and Fremont cross	9/13/2013 10:58 AM
80	Lots of unrealized potential, in need of much business revitalization.	9/13/2013 10:15 AM
81	challenged by proliferation of adult business, liquor-selling establishments, crime, drug use, but having a number of excellent restaurants and some very nice, older housing stock neglected by the City...	9/10/2013 12:06 PM
82	There are some really small cute homes in Roseway and it's only 10 minutes from downtown. Since I moved here in 2004 there have been many improvements. However, if I had kids I would not live here because the public schools in the neighborhood are not good schools (I'm a teacher).	8/27/2013 5:23 PM
83	Walkable, close to public transportation, quiet	8/11/2013 3:46 PM
84	Peaceful, sustainable and connected.	8/8/2013 3:48 PM
85	Mixed ages, safe and pleasant	8/8/2013 9:47 AM
86	A livable, diverse, walkable and bikeable place to live.	8/6/2013 7:18 PM
87	Great neighbors, quiet.	8/3/2013 7:18 PM
88	clean, family friendly, green, quiet, close to freemont and sandy	7/30/2013 8:00 PM
89	family friendly quiet safe very residential just past hollywood on sandy just past beaumont on fremont	7/29/2013 5:26 AM
90	Mixed middle class neighborhood. Lots of houses fixed up by people & maintained, mixed in with run down houses not maintained.	7/20/2013 9:11 AM
91	Quiet, accessible, storefronts need upgrading to make Sandy more pedestrian-friendly. Neighborhood streets are quiet and feel safe.	7/19/2013 11:26 PM
92	older, established, cute, quiet, family-friendly, well-kept, sensibly-sized homes	7/19/2013 11:45 AM
93	It has been a great neighborhood for raising children, but in my part of the neighborhood it has changed drastically with a lot of strange people from the Cully area walking up my block probably to Safeway.	7/18/2013 7:52 PM
94	Multi-cultural	7/17/2013 9:51 PM
95	Quiet urban kid-friendly neighborhood of tree-lined streets and nice neighbors.	7/16/2013 5:07 PM

Roseway Neighborhood

96	Nice, working-class neighborhood that can use help with lawn care and basic management of weeds.	7/16/2013 11:24 AM
97	great, quiet, middle class neighborhood. Lots of pretty gardens, homes are kept up, people are friendly.	7/15/2013 10:06 AM
98	amazing, family friendly, lots of bikers and pets, safe	7/15/2013 9:47 AM
99	Kid friendly...	7/14/2013 10:01 PM
100	Up and coming, though still lacking some essentials like sidewalks on every street, curbs, curb strips and bio-swells. Some parts of the neighborhood are inviting while others seem over-grown and very unkempt. It has the potential for a better and more defined downtown (the intersection of 72nd, Fremont & Sandy) which I really want to see develop. If downtown Roseway could really be developed and defined - by that I mean having more restaurants and small businesses that match the local demographics (income, preference), then the walkability of the neighborhood would increase as well. Roseway is quiet and is in a good location to take advantage of nearby shopping like Ikea & Target as well as the airport, but just enough removed so as to be peaceful and relaxing inside the city boundaries.	7/14/2013 2:51 PM
101	Quiet. Middle class. Neighborly	7/14/2013 8:47 AM
102	Just houses. Lots of bars, pot shops, jackshacks and fast food. There's not much here that you would want to do, just sleep and go to some other neighborhood to socialize with friends or take a walk or just enjoy yourself.	7/13/2013 9:18 PM
103	Mostly pleasant, with the notable exception of many of the arterial streets, which have a lot of traffic and crime and unappealing businesses. Good transit, but a little far from the center of town. Not a place to "live La Vida Portlandia." Friendly, down-to-earth, low-key--not a lot of "attitude." Relatively diverse--racially, economically, ethnically. You can take care of a lot of business--groceries, dry cleaning, dentist, pharmacy. But there's not really a central area where I would say to a friend, "Meet me at the corner of such-and-such and we can get coffee or a snack or do some window shopping." This might feel different for folks who patronize Vietnamese-focused businesses. Nice gardens.	7/13/2013 8:43 PM
104	Quite. Nice people. Nice access to several parks and green spaces. Sandy offers a handful of good restaurants including yummy vietnamese food. We like the close access to Beaumont village and other fun neighborhoods.	7/13/2013 5:32 PM
105	It's the Shire of PDX.	7/13/2013 12:32 PM
106	Quaint, friendly, quiet, accessible	7/13/2013 10:44 AM
107	lively, upbeat, relatively safe, convenient, too much traffic, some areas with no parking	7/13/2013 10:21 AM
108	Quiet, friendly, young families, close to parks and shopping, access to public transportation... A wonderful secret. Only the people who live here know what a great area it really is!	7/13/2013 8:15 AM
109	Family-friendly, walkable	7/11/2013 11:40 AM
110	Average	7/11/2013 7:56 AM
111	Nice neighborhood but a bit patchy and can be a little rough around the edges	7/11/2013 7:36 AM
112	older neighborhood, lots of people who walk their dogs, people walking/running. No more crime(gangs, break-ins, assaults, etc) than any other area. Not many taking pride in their yards. Parks are in OK conditions. Lots of other cultures with businesses and families.	7/9/2013 7:25 PM
113	quiet, close to public transportation	7/8/2013 4:30 PM
114	It's a nice mix of lower-middle-class homes, with some diversity.	7/8/2013 8:56 AM
115	an eclectic mix of middle to lower middle class income folks. With a few activists who throw their weight around and work to force their values on the rest of us using the neighborhood association as a cover, while delivering the City's mantra of how urban living should be to residents. The Neighborhood Association is disconnected from residents and exists solely to convey the mandates of the city council, they are nothing but a bunch of stooges looking for attention.	7/7/2013 2:41 PM
116	quiet, family-oriented, run down commercial area with a lot of potential but that is under developed	7/7/2013 8:06 AM
117	Up and coming neighborhood.	7/6/2013 8:14 PM
118	A decent place to live	7/6/2013 5:10 PM
119	A nice, quiet place to live with friendly neighbors, convenient to Stores, Banking, Shopping, Restaurants...all within walking distance.	7/6/2013 11:17 AM
120	Quiet, clean, and diverse	7/6/2013 11:04 AM
121	Quiet, clean, safe, middle class, affordable, friendly neighbors, stable and responsible homeowners, shopping nearby, nice park, good schools.	7/6/2013 10:54 AM

Roseway Neighborhood

122	It is a wonderful neighborhood, with a nice LITTLE park with a soccer field. It is too small for a movie which drew unwanted drug users as well as complaints about the noise from as far away as 64th and Beach. The man who puts on these events admitted Wellington Park is really too small for such events, yet he still put it on. Since it is not a money maker, just a mess maker, I would love to see this stopped.	7/6/2013 7:35 AM
123	Not much to say, not much is going on here! What can I say? I've lived here for 38 years, right?	7/6/2013 6:38 AM
124	Friendly people, nice homes, easy access	7/5/2013 5:47 PM
125	It's between Prescot and the Golf Course which you prolly don't know exists unless you golf and between 82nd and 6Nth with Annie's Donuts as its center.	7/5/2013 3:05 PM
126	Nice family neighbor hood.	7/4/2013 8:39 PM
127	Quiet, friendly, walkable, lovely, up and coming	7/4/2013 2:52 PM
128	safe, friendly community and well-cared for homes/properties	7/4/2013 10:47 AM
129	Hidden, quiet, charming	7/4/2013 9:17 AM
130	Conveniently located and quiet	7/4/2013 7:09 AM
131	Peaceful, nice. Getting better shops as time passes. Transitioning towards the better.	7/3/2013 3:31 PM
132	Quite residential area close to Sandy Boulevard.	7/3/2013 3:22 PM
133	Old,proud,historic	7/3/2013 7:05 AM
134	A neighborhood that's kinda "far" out, near 82nd Avenue. But in reality it's a "close-in" neighborhood, being only 15 minutes to downtown via Sandy Boulevard or I-84. For that reason, it seems odd that "gentrification" hasn't discovered it yet. When the Roseway neighborhood is mentioned, people get a quizzical expression on their face--they don't know where Roseway is. They've either never heard of it, or think it's a town outside Portland city limits. (Also, Roseway and Parkrose seem to get confused a lot.) Roseway is a friendly, safe and diverse neighborhood (both in race and income level). Because many of the businesses from 57th Ave to 72nd have Vietnamese names/enterprises, the exterior impression of Roseway is that of a Vietnamese enclave. But the businesses seem not to be a match with the demographics of the neighborhood as a whole.	7/2/2013 10:33 PM
135	Friendly, community-oriented	7/2/2013 5:14 PM
136	It's one of the last affordable, middle-class neighborhoods west of 82nd. Modest homes, nice neighbors, low crime, convenient location.	7/1/2013 8:52 PM
137	I always tell others that Roseway is this surprisingly nice, completely unknown neighborhood. It is family friendly and it is easy to bike and walk around, but there is not a lot in the way of shopping and dining outside of Asian fare. For this reason, when I say I live in Roseway, most people say, "where?".	6/25/2013 3:33 PM
138	my 'hood. low-key, up and coming, relatively benign. non-toxic	6/24/2013 3:42 PM
139	Mixed ages live peacefully here.	6/23/2013 9:52 PM
140	family friendly, well maintained affordable homes.	6/17/2013 10:36 AM
141	Friendly	6/11/2013 3:15 PM
142	Quiet, clean, some great restaurants.	6/11/2013 12:37 PM
143	Quiet, close to bus lines, nice yards, quaint houses.	6/11/2013 11:31 AM
144	I describe it as a gem that doesn't get the attention of other neighborhoods. Well-kept homes, quiet streets, good people, lousy commercial district.	6/11/2013 9:24 AM
145	Transitional, hard working class people trying to form a tight family friendly community	6/11/2013 9:02 AM
146	Dull but quiet.	6/11/2013 8:57 AM
147	a little far away from things, but on the cusp of a lot of great stuff	6/10/2013 7:38 PM
148	A mix of long time residents (30+ years) and young, first-time homebuyers.	6/10/2013 6:07 PM
149	A hidden jewel	6/10/2013 5:37 PM
150	Peaceful and quaint with a charming fringe.	6/10/2013 4:32 PM
151	Great and friendly neighborhood. Variety of living options. Good access to bike routes, transit, parks. Near the airport, but don't get many impacts.	6/10/2013 3:57 PM
152	Mix of families and working-class homeowners with access to many nearby amenities.	6/10/2013 3:28 PM

Roseway Neighborhood

153	Quiet, lots of families, nice parks, not much traffic, close to lots of shops, restaurants, bars, grocery stores, etc.	6/10/2013 2:12 PM
154	starting to get cleaned up, considered close in. Mixed neighborhood with homes slowly becoming improved.	6/10/2013 1:57 PM
155	Working-class, down-to-earth, friendly, convenient, off-the-radar, nice blend, desperately in need of a coffee shop, lucky to have a movie theater.	6/10/2013 1:53 PM
156	Neighborhood with many young families. cute homes.	6/10/2013 1:31 PM
157	A wonderful place to grow old	6/10/2013 1:25 PM
158	Great Community! Walk to park, store, theatre, golf, max, schools!	6/10/2013 1:19 PM
159	Great for families	6/10/2013 12:45 PM
160	Between Hollywood and Parkrose. Between gentrification and 82nd Avenue.	6/10/2013 12:41 PM
161	This side of 82nd. A mix of housing styles. Long timers and new families. Unfortunately not noticed by citywide projects because we are not needy enough but would still benefit from some attention from Planning bureau. Good parks and pretty good walking access to grocery stores. The best vietnamese food in Portland. Unfortunately with Sandy Blvd running through it, ODOT prevents some streetscape improvements. Vacant businesses also are a bit annoying.	6/10/2013 12:40 PM
162	A community in development when it comes to fostering neighborly ties.	6/10/2013 12:34 PM
163	Cute, convenient, friendly, old homes, trees, parks, pharmacy, movie theater, grocery, asian markets, library, schools, great for walking	6/10/2013 12:25 PM
164	A wonderful neighborhood as soon as you get off of NE Sandy Blvd.	6/10/2013 12:22 PM
165	Quiet, residential, neighborly, with some lovely gardens and art. Because of 82nd, Sandy and the golf course, somewhat isolated, underrecognized, underutilized, underserved. I would love to see the 82nd and Sandy business districts unified and connect the 2 halves of Roseway divided by Sandy, and better bike routes connecting the neighborhood with Madison South, Rose City Park and Montavilla. Would love to see more traffic calming and pedestrian safety on sandy, which divides our neighborhood.	6/10/2013 12:21 PM
166	In transition- older residents leaving or passing away, younger residents with young families moving in. Too many rentals.	6/10/2013 12:02 PM
167	Untrendy yet loveable!	6/10/2013 11:57 AM
168	Diverse	6/10/2013 11:54 AM

1	Nice mix of smaller early and mid century homes.	2/7/2014 4:06 PM
2	nice neighborhood...seems it needs some planning to make it more live able for the residents	12/3/2013 12:40 PM
3	Small businesses like Roseway theater & older neighborhoods	11/11/2013 11:11 AM
4	It's affordable and it's still so close to everything.	11/10/2013 2:10 PM
5	Easy access to everything. Schools have high level of parent involvement.	11/5/2013 10:30 AM
6	Love the view from Sacramento looking over the golf course at Mt Hood.	11/5/2013 6:13 AM
7	Nothing, really	11/4/2013 6:57 PM
8	The houses - many different styles and types and I like the time period some were built. Mine is 1929. Has a neighborhood feel.	11/4/2013 5:30 PM
9	Dog lovers and beautiful gardens!	11/4/2013 4:38 PM
10	Lots of young families	11/4/2013 4:29 PM
11	It's proximity to major business districts and highways while still feeling safe and comfortable	11/4/2013 3:56 PM
12	having the Roseway Theater and the walking trail along the top of the golf course make Roseway unique	11/4/2013 3:20 PM
13	Park Blocks. Access to public transportation and the airport.	11/4/2013 2:56 PM
14	I've lived in Roseway since 1977; I was the youngest person on my block when I arrived; I am now one of the oldest; have enjoyed seeing children arrive in a neighbor families, grow up, and move on to college. There's not too much "keeping up with the Joneses" in Roseway. Good sense of comaraderie here; we had a block party (with permits) for 4th of July.	11/4/2013 2:52 PM
15	Not sure	11/4/2013 1:56 PM
16	That we all work together to make it a better place to live.	11/4/2013 1:31 PM
17	Great Asian groceries and wide ethnic restaurants.	11/4/2013 12:45 PM
18	The mix of people who have lived there for forty plus years and new owners.	11/4/2013 11:46 AM
19	Having historic places like Fairley's and Roseway Theater only a few blocks away. I love being able to walk to a movie theater yet not have all the traffic and noise of a city when I go back home.	11/4/2013 11:43 AM
20	Diversity.	11/4/2013 11:27 AM
21	The small old-fashioned business district (movie theater, barber shop, pharmacy). I'd like to see more of this and make our neighborhood more walkable.	11/4/2013 11:27 AM
22	The we have our own Theater and the walking/biking path above the Municipal Golf Course	11/4/2013 11:04 AM
23	Low profile compared to other neighborhoods but similar selection of services and businesses, so very affordable.	11/4/2013 11:02 AM
24	Feels like a close-knit community	11/4/2013 10:45 AM
25	Multiple asian markets. Park block with beautiful mural.	11/4/2013 10:44 AM
26	Not sure.	11/4/2013 10:34 AM
27	it seems to be at a crossroads - it can improve with new families moving in & upgrading the houses, or it could easily be pulled the other way by crime and vacant homes	11/3/2013 6:41 PM
28	It has everything in walking distance--food, restaurants, parks, etc.	10/30/2013 10:50 AM
29	A little gritty, with character, but safe and good location	10/20/2013 9:13 PM
30	Community	10/20/2013 9:16 AM
31	Melting pot of cultures, not snobby!	10/17/2013 1:28 PM

Roseway Neighborhood

32	I'm happy we have one of the few fenced dog-parks in the city.	10/13/2013 10:47 AM
33	Not a lot of through traffic because of Alameda Ridge; I like that it's so walkable even though it's not very close-in; it's quiet	10/12/2013 9:46 AM
34	72nd street park blocks could be a unique attribute if we turned it into something special.	10/11/2013 10:02 PM
35	Age of homes, diversity of homes, beauty of landscape.	10/10/2013 1:21 PM
36	Ease of commute give access to Sandy Blvd.	10/10/2013 12:34 PM
37	It is authentic Portland -- a pleasant Portland neighborhood that has always been that way -- hip but not too hip.	10/9/2013 1:47 PM
38	Close to anything. A sense of history, nostalgia (Roseway theater, Fairley's pharmacy), trees and roses!	10/8/2013 3:48 PM
39	Some of the least attractive commercial structures in NE.	10/8/2013 9:53 AM
40	The neighbors are so friendly!	10/8/2013 8:02 AM
41	72nd park blocks, Roseway theater,	10/6/2013 10:09 PM
42	3 bus lines not too far.	10/6/2013 8:26 PM
43	Closeness to I-84 and I-205, 3 buslines, the MAX, the airport, and a lot of parks.	10/6/2013 6:44 PM
44	The small shops and businesses	10/6/2013 3:25 PM
45	It's down to earth yet people have pride in their homes. Seems to have a good blend of ages living here.	10/6/2013 6:35 AM
46	neighbors generally know each other very well and are often friends, not just acquaintances.	10/5/2013 9:24 PM
47	Neighbors are like a big family.	10/2/2013 7:32 PM
48	Many people have lived here a long time. My neighbors have 4 generations in one house.	10/1/2013 10:36 PM
49	I love the streets that run perpendicular to the numbered streets. They give the appearance of alleyways and in the summer they are a popular route for runners/bikers/dog walkers.	10/1/2013 12:10 PM
50	Not crowded or noisy. Can walk to most services. Roseway theatre. Fairleys Pharmacy. Asian Restaurants and grocery stores. This uniqueness area needs to be improved thought. We need a meeting place or destination area. Maybe some community art work or pedestrian only street with shops.	10/1/2013 10:30 AM
51	Close to great stores like whole foods, and soon new seasons. It has two privately owned movie theaters close by. The people are great.	9/30/2013 9:51 PM
52	The walk around golf course and tree lined streets	9/30/2013 3:55 PM
53	We love the balance between the lovely walking path along NE Sacramento and the amenities of NE Sandy. Also, love how can easily get to shops to the north of Sandy (Fremont and Prescott), but also to amenities south of Sandy (Glisan and Burnside).	9/29/2013 1:52 PM
54	It has a wide range of home prices, and yet lacks the sense of division that can be found when wealthy and poorer people live near one another. I find that fascinating and wonderful.	9/13/2013 8:22 PM
55	There's nothing really remarkable about Roseway. I've met a lot of nice people here and my kid is going Roseway Heights which is a great school and where I get the best sense of community. This neighborhood has great bones (nice library, schools, parks, ethnic restaurants). But I wouldn't call anything "unique or special."	9/13/2013 5:07 PM
56	It's unique in that it's personality doesn't stand out like in some other parts of town. It just blends in.	9/13/2013 2:24 PM
57	Sense of community	9/13/2013 12:51 PM
58	Same as #4.	9/13/2013 11:36 AM
59	Cute smaller houses and well kept	9/13/2013 11:10 AM
60	Affordable accessibility. Divided by Sandy.	9/13/2013 11:00 AM
61	We are possibly the one neighborhood in town without a devoted coffee shop (not counting Starbucks inside Safeway)! In many ways, it seems stuck in time (not in a good way).	9/13/2013 10:16 AM
62	proximity to significant open space (Madison HS park, new Zen Center, golf course, animal hospital grounds, the Grotto)	9/10/2013 12:07 PM
63	The surprising Asian population and access to Asian things-restaurants, stores and the public library has a special collection the Asian population. I'm not Asian but was very pleasantly surprised by this.	8/27/2013 5:26 PM
64	?	8/11/2013 3:47 PM

Roseway Neighborhood

65	Hummingbirds, Fairleys, Goats, unimproved roads	8/8/2013 3:51 PM
66	I love the long-standing businesses and buildings—the sense of neighborhood continuity.	8/6/2013 7:18 PM
67	All the dog walkers at the park blocks.	8/3/2013 7:21 PM
68	not sure yet...maybe the goat farm	7/30/2013 8:01 PM
69	concentration of Asian businesses potential to become a more well known neighborhood	7/29/2013 5:30 AM
70	Nothing. It's not unique or special compared to other neighborhoods. In fact it's surprising that in all the years I've lived here it's not become more of an up & coming neighborhood considering the 72nd & Sandy business district. It's still has about the same number of so-so businesses & restaurants & grocery stores, no coffee shop. On the other hand I suppose that makes it more affordable for many of the people here.	7/20/2013 9:16 AM
72	suburban feel in an urban location	7/19/2013 11:46 AM
73	we have a lot of good small businesses in the neighborhood	7/18/2013 7:54 PM
74	Quiet friendly neighborhood tucked away yet a part of Portland. Most people don't know it exists - it's a great secret.	7/16/2013 5:08 PM
75	Many successful small business that I can walk to in order to accomplish my needs. Fairley's and the theater are an awesome asset. Also, I love the golf course "loop" for running	7/16/2013 11:28 AM
76	architecture of the homes	7/15/2013 10:07 AM
77	How active the community is with each other and how many kids are on each block!	7/15/2013 9:48 AM
78	I really can't think of anything in a positive way. It's the first place I've lived where I'm constantly surprised by what I see out my front window walking by, or staggering by. Our home is on Fremont.	7/13/2013 9:18 PM
79	I'm not sure, but it seems like it hits a sweet spot in terms of there being room for all different kinds of people—a middle ground between liberal and conservative Portland.	7/13/2013 8:45 PM
80	People are down to earth.	7/13/2013 5:33 PM
81	Friendly	7/13/2013 10:44 AM
82	friendly people, mostly	7/13/2013 10:22 AM
83	A great mix of people. Everyone is kind and willing to work to create a wonderful neighborhood.	7/13/2013 8:16 AM
84	Close to downtown and freeways yet still quiet and has a neighborhood feel.	7/11/2013 11:41 AM
85	Different styles of homes	7/11/2013 7:57 AM
86	Very quiet for a close in neighborhood	7/11/2013 7:36 AM
87	close to golf course	7/8/2013 4:31 PM
88	It has a great mix of parks, residential streets with main thoroughfares and businesses.	7/8/2013 8:57 AM
89	Nothing that is what I like about it.	7/7/2013 2:42 PM
90	Park Blocks, walking trail along Sacramento, access to Rocky Butte, part of the Columbia Slough	7/7/2013 8:07 AM
91	Nothing really, it's like a lot of middle class neighborhoods in NE Portland.	7/6/2013 8:14 PM
92	Not much anymore. Becoming disenchanted	7/6/2013 5:11 PM
93	Cute specialty shops, restaurants....and the MANY sidewalks, making the neighborhood VERY walking-friendly.....we love to walk around the neighborhood and see what everybody else has done with their houses and gardens!	7/6/2013 11:20 AM
94	Cameo cafe, Annie's doughnuts, Vietnamese food and Asian markets	7/6/2013 11:07 AM
95	Fairley's, Roseway Theater and park blocks	7/6/2013 10:54 AM
96	the Roseway Theater. It's great for the neighborhood to have such a quality theater at a family price. It's made even great by dropping the fucking 3D movies.	7/5/2013 3:07 PM
97	Less dense than the southeast. Easy to walk around. Everyone is friendly. Little library boxes. Lots of veggie gardens out front.	7/4/2013 2:54 PM
98	Friendly community.	7/4/2013 10:48 AM
99	Walkability	7/4/2013 9:18 AM

Roseway Neighborhood

100	Diversity in all ways	7/2/2013 5:15 PM
101	It's still fairly diverse for Portland. It hasn't been totally gentrified yet.	7/1/2013 8:53 PM
102	I think because most people own their homes, Roseway feels like a neighborhood in kind of an old fashioned sense.	6/25/2013 3:35 PM
103	the marvelous asian restaurants and groceries, Roseway Theatre, Fairley's Pharmacy, the golf course to walk around	6/24/2013 3:44 PM
104	School and park together.	6/23/2013 9:53 PM
105	72nd ave parkway	6/17/2013 10:37 AM
106	Seems to be best place for the $.	6/11/2013 12:38 PM
107	It feels like a small town neighborhood in a very big city.	6/11/2013 9:25 AM
108	I can walk to a store, pharmacy, park, school, movie theater and many restaurants in minutes.	6/11/2013 9:05 AM
109	cultural make up of the community...people forget that north of prescott is also part of our community	6/10/2013 7:39 PM
110	Roseway Theater, the park blocks, proximity to Beaumont, proximity to I-205, proximity to Cascade Station shopping	6/10/2013 6:22 PM
111	Easy accessibility to everywhere.	6/10/2013 5:38 PM
112	For Portland, it seems small town-ish yet at the same time ironically, it seems more diverse.	6/10/2013 4:34 PM
113	We have lived in 2 houses we have owned in Roseway. We deliberately stayed in Roseway when we moved to our second house 10 years ago because of the sense of community and the ethnic/racial diversity, and we were able to find a bigger house within the neighborhood without having to look elsewhere.	6/10/2013 3:59 PM
114	Proximity to many nearby amenities yet neighborhood itself is not overrun with traffic.	6/10/2013 3:31 PM
115	Has a great "neighborhood" feel	6/10/2013 2:12 PM
116	strong character	6/10/2013 1:54 PM
117	It hasn't changed much in 50 years. My uncle rented the house close to where I bought 30 years later. A neighbor remembered him and my parents knew the house immediately.	6/10/2013 1:29 PM
118	Roseway Theatre, Summer Sun schools at Glenhaven with Free lunches for kids	6/10/2013 1:20 PM
119	Kids can play outside on the sidewalk safely on my street	6/10/2013 12:47 PM
120	Old Skool local small businesses. Sandy Blvd. "motorway" architecture. Vietnamese influence. Roseway Theater. Fairley's Drugstore. Annie's Donuts. Still not gentrified.	6/10/2013 12:45 PM
121	The Roseway Theater.	6/10/2013 12:41 PM
122	Well...the proximity to 82nd somewhat dampens the appeal.	6/10/2013 12:34 PM
123	The relationships with people come first, proximity to grocery store, library and mass transit (for walkers and those who do not drive), well maintained homes save the occasional one or two, great new theater, some street improvements.	6/10/2013 12:25 PM
124	It's one of a few still relatively affordable neighborhoods west of 82nd and unlike Cully has sidewalks and older homes. It is diverse but becoming less so unless we have something done that keeps prices affordable for all types of people.	6/10/2013 12:22 PM
125	Not many people know about it or where it is.	6/10/2013 12:03 PM
126	I think it's such a gem. Still affordable, yet relatively close-in. Safe, walkable. Families.	6/10/2013 11:58 AM
127	the intersection of Sandy and Fremont. I wish it were more vibrant like Alberta or Fremont. would love to see some nicer bars/restaurants in there.	6/10/2013 11:51 AM

Q8 What changes, if any, would you like to see in this neighborhood?

Answered: 139 Skipped: 46

#	Responses	Date
1	I'd like to see less pot & sex shops...	11/11/2013 11:14 AM
2	Stop signs. COFFEE shop and a cafe. BETTER SCHOOLS..	11/10/2013 2:14 PM
3	Keep expanding bike routes and safe pedestrian areas.	11/5/2013 10:33 AM
4	I'd love a little clean up of Sandy blvd between 67th and Safeway. More business that appeals to everyone. Would be nice to see something go into the antique store that would generate neighborhood interest.	11/5/2013 6:17 AM
5	Loitering and homeless out of the neighborhoods so the kids are safe. less strip and scanky bars.	11/5/2013 5:44 AM
6	More social gathering places and services	11/4/2013 7:24 PM
7	More business that I would want to go to on a daily basis....coffee shop, pizza place, food carts, shops, etc.....	11/4/2013 6:59 PM
8	Get rid of the Pirate's Cove; more police patrols; decrease car break-ins and some shady elements I have seen about. I have experienced 3 car break-ins. Once myself while the car was in our drive and two guests who were visiting and parked on the street. I have learned you can leave absolutely nothing in the car.	11/4/2013 5:36 PM
9	Less homeless	11/4/2013 5:29 PM
10	Make Sandy Blvd from Safeway out - more attractive. Especially the Pirate's Cove...it is an eyesore! Needs plants and curb appeal. A bicycle street - Mason would be great!	11/4/2013 4:47 PM
11	We need a coffee shop or breakfast place	11/4/2013 4:33 PM
12	clean up the look of Sandy Blvd with street trees, furnishings, other things that make the street less traffic-centric and more people-centric, add more curb extensions, more designated ped crossings, and create a central community plaza at the 72nd/Sandy/Fremont intersection	11/4/2013 3:23 PM
13	slower traffic on Sandy Blvd. More sidewalks going east/west. More parks for kids. Better Neighborhood public elementary school.	11/4/2013 2:58 PM
14	Electric vehicle charging stations; in locations where Car2Go vehicles can be parked.	11/4/2013 2:55 PM
15	More support for local school. Getting rid of Potlandia Increased safety	11/4/2013 2:37 PM
16	The neighborhood really needs more (and more diverse) social gathering spaces. More often than not we go out of neighborhood to get a bite to eat with the kids. We'd love to more options of places in the neighborhood -- and places within walking distance. Also -- and perhaps connected to that -- is that the heart of the neighborhood (intersection of Sandy, 72nd Av and Fremont) is a horrible intersection. It's awful for pedestrians. It's not a very attractive or inviting spot.	11/4/2013 2:04 PM
17	My main concerns are the lack of sidewalks on the east/west streets and the random placement/lack of stop signs in the neighborhood.	11/4/2013 1:50 PM
18	More parties!	11/4/2013 1:32 PM
19	More gathering places. Coffee shop would be great!	11/4/2013 12:47 PM
20	I'd like it to be a bit more safe. I'm not sure if there's a neighborhood watch in place, but I see too many signs out front for home security systems, my own home included.	11/4/2013 12:30 PM
21	Wellington Park is a beautiful park, but sadly underused as there's little there except for a small playground, defunct wading pool and soccer field. More amenities such as a tennis court would be very welcome.	11/4/2013 11:49 AM
22	Less graffiti and meth.	11/4/2013 11:48 AM
23	I'd like to see it be more walk-able and have some places to hang out that aren't strip clubs or sketchy bars. I'm very unhappy with the traffic the liquor store relocation has brought... many people now speed down our residential streets. Also, the number of pot stores is ridiculous. I felt like the neighborhood was moving in a good direction, but the last year or so has felt like it's moving backwards.	11/4/2013 11:30 AM
24	Reduction of taxes.	11/4/2013 11:29 AM

Roseway Neighborhood

25	I would like to see nice, clean, well painted store fronts between 67th and Fremont. Bacchi's draws people in because it looks nice...now if we could only repaint the purple building.	11/4/2013 11:13 AM
26	I would like to see more locally owned businesses & a revitalization of the Sandy Blvd businesses to appeal to others in Portland. Roseway is not a destination neighborhood and many residents of Portland don't even know where Roseway is.	11/4/2013 11:07 AM
27	Improve public transit along Sandy.	11/4/2013 11:05 AM
28	I would love for Sandy to seem like less of a "strip" with ugly storefronts and more of a neighborhood with quality businesses. Less littering and loitering. More attention and care to the park blocks from the city. Better schools!!!!	11/4/2013 10:49 AM
29	Better schools - I don't want to leave, but I also don't want to send my son to substandard or poor schools	11/4/2013 10:47 AM
30	Sandy blvd restaurants/businesses need to be improved. Schools need to be improved. Farmers market added.	11/4/2013 10:38 AM
31	would like to see, and be involved in, efforts to address: unpaved streets, crime, litter, vacant houses...not necessarily in that order!	11/3/2013 6:46 PM
32	small brewpub.	11/1/2013 1:34 AM
33	A catalyst coffee shop or restaurant that can bring the community together. Wish the antique store would truly go "out of business." Urban renewal for the asian storefronts. 72nd intersection configured for humans vs cars.	10/28/2013 9:33 PM
34	Crime!	10/20/2013 9:18 AM
35	More community events - more art - more shops and cafes	10/17/2013 1:31 PM
36	more street trees, more sidewalks, more locally-owned small coffee shops, restaurants, bars. and much less noise, litter & crime. In short, I'd like to be more like inner SE & NE where I wish I could afford to buy a home.	10/13/2013 10:56 AM
37	More social gathering places & improvement of 72nd park strip	10/11/2013 10:07 PM
38	I would love to see more local businesses that draw a youthful crowd. Also would love to see all the bars (from windows) removed from NE Sandy businesses. I'd probably be okay with Pirates Cove going away too.	10/10/2013 1:24 PM
39	Sandy Boulevard "slowed down" -- maybe re-routed? Get rid of the Sandy Jug? A little NIMBY I admit -- I realize these changes are long shots.	10/9/2013 1:52 PM
40	Better coffee shops/cafes within the Safeway area...only Starbucks seems to reign the area. It's nice having asian cuisine, but a broader variety of "eats" would be a good purposeful addition.	10/8/2013 3:51 PM
41	Ban leaf blowers and chickens & barking dogs. Beautify Sandy Blvd.	10/8/2013 9:57 AM
42	I would LOVE to see a coffee shop that serves Stumptown coffee and more variety in the restaurants.	10/8/2013 8:06 AM
43	More variety of businesses on Sandy like shops and eateries.	10/6/2013 10:19 PM
44	Another grocery store that is not Safeway.	10/6/2013 8:27 PM
45	Increased safety--stopping vandalism and theft.	10/6/2013 6:47 PM
46	People not using Harvey Scott School yard and the park as an off leash dog park!	10/6/2013 3:30 PM
47	Sidewalks on the east/west streets! Walking the dog in the winter is life threatening with the lack of space to get off to the side of the roads (especially with puddles) and it getting dark early. I get yelled at by drivers constantly and I'm wearing neon and have enough flashing lights clipped to me and my dog to look like a Christmas tree.	10/6/2013 6:40 AM
48	A better grocery store than safeway. A new seasons would be ideal. I can't shop at safeway for everything I need and don't see it as a good value, typically.	10/5/2013 9:28 PM
49	Stop signs in my neighborhood- NE 77th ave	10/2/2013 7:34 PM
50	We seem to be the only neighborhood in Portland without a coffee shop. I guess that could be our motto. Something to fill that ugly driving range field (besides Wall Mart) which we successfully defeated.	10/1/2013 10:41 PM
51	I would like to see more investment along sandy. There are a lot of old/unpopular businesses that just take up space. It has the makings of a hawthorne strip with the influx of younger/trendy singles/families moving into the neighborhood.	10/1/2013 12:13 PM
52	Roads and basic services need work. A plan and direction for the future with a vision. If we don't don't plan for the future our neighborhood will be overcome with development like Beaumont area is. All of a sudden huge very expensive houses will pop up all around you and radically change your life style.	10/1/2013 10:35 AM

53	A few upscale restaurants.	9/30/2013 9:51 PM
54	More cafes like Bacchis	9/30/2013 3:56 PM
55	We would love more restaurants, or coffee shops right on Sandy. Right now, there are plenty of Asian restaurants, which is great. But we'd love for more variety in walking distance.	9/29/2013 1:52 PM
56	More calming features on Sacramento and sidewalks on both sides to create more of a sense of neighborhood. That would tie the street to the rest of the neighborhood better too. Now, lots of people traverse it, but it's an anomaly when compared to the rest of the neighborhood, and creates an impression of separateness.	9/13/2013 8:26 PM
57	Revitalize and attract new business to this neighborhood. Demolish these old ugly institutional-looking buildings on Sandy and Fremont and bring some density and vibrancy here. Get some trees on the sidewalks. Celebrate some of the ethnic differences here. Bring in a farmer's market. Have festivals. Pave a path on the Park Blocks so it's walkable. As is, it's beauty is less accessible. Concerts in the park was a good move. More of that kind of stuff.	9/13/2013 5:14 PM
58	nicer store fronts - fresh paint, modern signage. variety of shops - more destination shopping. good neighborhood coffee shop for hanging out.	9/13/2013 3:41 PM
59	It would be nice to have a community garden space.	9/13/2013 2:27 PM
60	Better schools	9/13/2013 1:00 PM
61	Better streets, New Seasons, nicer pubs,	9/13/2013 12:53 PM
62	I'd love a coffee shop above 53rd and some other businesses that are locally owned but absent from this neighborhood. I'd also like to address safety issues with Sandy Blvd and 82nd avenue traffic and sex industry.	9/13/2013 11:41 AM
63	More family oriented business in the area (no strip clubs or pot dispensaries). More daycare centers in the area.	9/13/2013 11:38 AM
64	More walkable restaurants and bar that offer more than asian fare. Coffee shops, cool shops etc. The market is there and we want it!	9/13/2013 11:12 AM
65	More small businesses that are also social centers. The stretch along Sandy between Du's restaurant and Hollywood fitness is a good example: Food carts, comics store, coffee shop, bakery, bike shop...	9/13/2013 11:02 AM
66	Infusion of new businesses, fewer bars on business windows (make them more inviting), diversity of business types, make use of the park blocks (farmers market & other events, pathways, benches), more trees (especially on Sandy & Fremont), more pedestrian friendly, better stoplight calibration at the Sandy/Fremont intersection (seriously, did ODOT even check the timing after reconfiguring it?!), more pride in ownership, more neighborhood involvement	9/13/2013 10:21 AM
67	address traffic conditions that make crossing major thoroughfares dangerous for bicyclists and pedestrians	9/10/2013 12:09 PM
68	Pave all the unpaved streets! It's very strange to have potholes deep enough to drown children in our neighborhood. I walk a lot in the neighborhood and it would be nice for all streets to be paved and to have sidewalks on every street. I would also like Safeway to stop using its leaf blowing machine at 7 in the morning every day!! It's followed by some sort of street sweeping with equally the same amount of noise disturbance. Very disruptive for those of us who are home during the day. I've spoken with the manager but to no avail.	8/27/2013 5:34 PM
69	A good Mexican restaurant & neighborhood coffee shop	8/11/2013 3:50 PM
70	More hyper local interest hubs	8/8/2013 3:54 PM
71	Social gathering places, small businesses, less airport noise	8/8/2013 9:49 AM
72	Better maintenance - both of the park blocks and home owners	8/3/2013 7:23 PM
73	farmer's market, Sandy blvd needs to be improved. It has been the same since I was a kid (grew up over here).	7/30/2013 8:04 PM
74	More destination food & drink places, somewhere people from other neighborhoods want to come visit. Restaurants, bars, markets, art galleries, boutique shops More trees & landscaping along sidewalks on Sandy. Hanging flower baskets & Roseway neighborhood signs along Sandy. More neighborhood festivals & events to bring the community together. Events sponsored by local businesses. More use of the green space on 72nd & Prescott for events. Installations of art, sculptures along sidewalks & murals.	7/29/2013 5:46 AM
75	Fewer renters, more responsible homeowners. An increase in people caring about the neighborhood & their homes, not just about themselves. Higher level of safety, which also comes with more people caring.	7/20/2013 9:19 AM
76	improve Sandy between 60th and 82nd improve 82nd avenue btwn Prescott and Madison High School	7/19/2013 11:31 PM

Roseway Neighborhood

77	more pride of ownership; more preventative maintenance and repairs executed in timely fashion (may require educating homeowners)	7/19/2013 11:52 AM
78	People not using the field at Harvey Scott School as a dog park	7/18/2013 7:57 PM
79	A good coffee shop.	7/17/2013 9:54 PM
80	Our stretch of Sandy Blvd leaves much to be desired though there is great potential for shops & restaurants. The spill-over from north of Prescott St & 82nd Ave is not ideal - safety is always a small concern. Wish more public transit options were available.	7/16/2013 5:11 PM
81	Neighbors who actually care enough about their property and neighborhood that they practice at least the basics in lawn/landscape maintenance.	7/16/2013 11:35 AM
82	not sure yet	7/15/2013 9:50 AM
83	More family friendly businesses along sandy blvd northeast of 72nd Ave	7/14/2013 10:08 PM
84	Sidewalks, sidewalks, sidewalks, sidewalks on all the streets! Curb strips with lots of trees and bio-swells. A well defined downtown spreading out from where 72nd, Fremont & Sandy come together.	7/14/2013 3:01 PM
85	Less barking dogs. ;)	7/14/2013 8:49 AM
86	If the sex, drug, and pot businesses were closed, the safety, community and economic health of the neighborhood would improve. The older commercial buildings on Sandy and 82nd need to be redeveloped.	7/13/2013 9:19 PM
87	Less noise (traffic/people) on Fremont, but I'm not holding my breath. Businesses that "people like me" would like to hang out in, like cafes. More of a central gathering place. BusLine 24 running later into the evening and on weekends, if the economics could pencil out. Serious help for the people who are seriously, loudly suffering (drugs, sex trafficking, etc) on 82nd.	7/13/2013 8:55 PM
88	Sidewalks on east/ west roads. Get rid of crazy pot holes.	7/13/2013 5:36 PM
89	Improve the schools	7/13/2013 12:34 PM
90	None	7/13/2013 10:46 AM
91	I am very concerned about Scott Elementary School. I have watched 3 families move from my block as their children turned 5 because they did not want to send their kids to Scott. I have two young children and will need to look into the schools soon. I really love my home and my neighborhood. I would hate to feel the need to move just to make sure my children were able to get a good education. I am hoping that as I visit and research Scott I learn that my neighbors' fears were incorrect.	7/13/2013 8:22 AM
92	The only downside to the neighborhood is that the children don't attend the neighborhood school because of issues they have had at the school and the immersion program.	7/11/2013 11:43 AM
93	Help neighborhood folks understand how important it is to keep their homes and yards neat and tidy Better manage rentals Pave the unpaved side streets Fix sidewalks Shut down Skinns	7/11/2013 8:00 AM
94	Pave the side streets and manage out some of the local businesses that cause trouble. Skinns and Potlandia. Work with Cully and the 82nd neighborhood to clean up 60th and Prescott and 82nd. Clean up our local grocery stores. I shop in Hollywood because Safeway and Albertsons are dives.	7/11/2013 7:40 AM
95	Getting rid of the "sex shops" that seem to be at every other corner. Business not staying open all night, I think that only provides opportunities for crime.	7/9/2013 7:33 PM
96	I want to see some pride in appearance. The Park Blocks used to be well manicured and the lawn weed free, and so did Gregory Heights School, and Madison High. The Park Blocks have dead and dying Trees, and along the road residents have added a few trees, but they look like and after thought, and look awful. The Schools used to have flowerbeds that were maintained, and grass mowed, and weed free. There is no "Pride in Appearance" and the neighborhood attitude reflects that.	7/7/2013 2:49 PM
97	improved pedestrian realm along Sandy Blvd with street trees, curb extensions, much safer crossings between signalized intersections, bike racks, awnings at storefronts, nicer more kept up building facades, less ugly signage, no blocked out windows facing the streets.	7/7/2013 8:10 AM
98	Dogs on leashes. Only see one in three pet owners leash their dogs or pick-up after them. For that reason I am looking to move out of area after 20 years.	7/6/2013 5:13 PM
99	Adding sidewalks to the streets that don't have them....more frequent grass cutting on the 72nd ave park blocks...more careful management of pet waste	7/6/2013 11:24 AM
100	Slower traffic on Sandy, crosswalk with a light near the library, natural food market, another coffee shop (doesn't "Roseway Cafe" have a nice ring to it?).	7/6/2013 11:13 AM
101	Street repairs and sidewalks on east/west streets	7/6/2013 11:00 AM

Roseway Neighborhood

102	Promoting street fairs, arts & crafts, music, flea-market-Saturday Market style, using up parking lot spaces, small fees (so everyone can attend, instead of avoiding them), other than sports, uses for parks. There's only a few days of good weather, but it should be 3 seasons event.	7/6/2013 6:48 AM
103	stop signs at every intersection	7/5/2013 5:48 PM
104	More gathering places, less graffiti, more stop signs and sidewalks.	7/4/2013 2:58 PM
105	Paved roads and sidewalks!!!!	7/4/2013 10:50 AM
106	More gathering places, spruce up the storefronts, make the park blocks more parklike	7/4/2013 9:21 AM
107	(1) the intersection of Sandy, Fremont, and 72nd to become a destination spot for both neighbors and the city (2) cohesive and sophisticated branding campaign for the neighborhood (including lamppost signage announcing entrance to the neighborhood)	7/2/2013 10:46 PM
108	More police presence in Madison High area, esp. on NE 77th Pl which leads into Glenhaven Park, parking area, back of school bldg, Bad nighttime activities.	7/2/2013 5:17 PM
109	The streets need paving quite badly. I would also like to see more businesses choose 82nd ave. It needs a facelift.	7/1/2013 8:55 PM
110	I would love a Portland style restaurant/ cafe with locally sourced food. I would also love a food-coop or other place to get more organic/ natural foods. We only shop at Safeway for a few forgotten items, but head to New Seasons for our regular trips. A coffee shop would be lovely as well.	6/25/2013 3:38 PM
111	few empty storefronts	6/24/2013 3:46 PM
112	Reduce diesel busses idling at Scott School.	6/23/2013 9:55 PM
113	A ban on flag lot houses	6/17/2013 10:43 AM
114	Good coffee shop!	6/11/2013 12:40 PM
115	More community events	6/11/2013 11:33 AM
116	Continuous sidewalks, better traffic control on residential streets, a more attractive and desirable commercial district.	6/11/2013 9:29 AM
117	The strippers and pot shops gone!	6/11/2013 9:08 AM
118	A decent coffee shop would be nice, better restaurants, a non-dive bar, etc.	6/11/2013 9:02 AM
119	family friendly coffee shop...fairley's is awesome, but a little lacking in atmosphere	6/10/2013 7:41 PM
120	Redevelopment of the Sandy/Fremont intersection. I'd prefer to see fewer dive bars and liquor stores and more social gathering places (ie coffee shops, cafes, restaurants, etc).	6/10/2013 6:26 PM
121	Closer access to a year round swimming pool.	6/10/2013 5:41 PM
122	A couple nice restaurants/bars/cafes. A couple nice shops. More trees.	6/10/2013 4:36 PM
123	Less use of Sandy as a cut through for commuters.	6/10/2013 4:01 PM
124	Better walkability on side streets that have no sidewalks. Better development of small neighborhood businesses or small gathering places, such as a coffee shop.	6/10/2013 3:33 PM
125	Better schools! I don't want to leave when my kids are school age!!!!	6/10/2013 2:14 PM
126	Better coordination with the city (for all neighborhoods really) to maintain or improve affordability. There is a growing trend towards putting more buildings on lots or making huge monstrosity homes that prices out the neighborhood. Roseway successfully fought off big box stores and should continue to fight for neighborhood continuity with housing (single family homes <2,000ft <sup>2</sup> ), improved sidewalks, improved access to other parts of city. #12 bus should be express to downtown (or at least to Hollywood and then downtown and return).	6/10/2013 1:58 PM
127	More local coffee/tea shops and eateries.	6/10/2013 1:42 PM
128	Improvement of #12 and #72 bus service. Re-design of 82nd/Sandy for pedestrian safety, better traffic flow, aesthetics. Fewer or no adult-orientated businesses. Safety along 82nd (pedestrian and transit). More, closer parks and open space.	6/10/2013 12:52 PM
129	Maybe more block parties, festivals, charity events and more integration between white folks and people of color. Maybe a list serve where people can inform eachother of things like events, break ins, and network opportunities.	6/10/2013 12:52 PM
130	More focus on finding tenants for the vacant buildings to give the neighborhood a focal point.	6/10/2013 12:47 PM

Roseway Neighborhood

131	Safer. My car was stolen out of my driveway, and someone tried to break into my house. The new 7-11 on Klickitat and 82nd has brought a lot of litter with it.	6/10/2013 12:37 PM
132	Rather than change, I want to see gentrification prevented and diversity upheld or increased if possible. It's already happening (Roseway became less diverse from 2000 to 2010 - white population went from 67% to 76%) and our Asian population is decreasing (cut in half from 16% to 8% from 2000 to 2010). I want to see support for, and involvement with, those populations from our N/A which is primarily white. Our Black, Latino and multiracial populations are also decreasing, tho more slowly. Why do we not have interpreters at NA meetings and representatives of those business owners & residents? If those businesses leave, what will take their place? I fear that it will be less desirable businesses like marijuana clubs, stripclubs and "lingerie" (trafficking) shops, like those already nearby on 82nd, which contribute to crime and anonymous traffic from outside the neighborhood. because Sandy is not walkable I fear that they wouldn't be replaced by the slightly more desirable coffee shops/overpriced boutiques/niche stores that are the hallmark of gentrification. The locksmith at 76th and Sandy has already been replaced by a marijuana club. I would like to see family-friendly, NOT gentrification-friendly and not-crime-friendly businesses continue to represent and support our neighbors.	6/10/2013 12:32 PM
133	I am becoming increasingly concerned about 4 things in Roseway: gangs, "medical" marijuana shops, strip clubs and skinny houses. The recent redevelopment of the German American Society building at NE 57th and Sandy is a huge blessing for Roseway and I hope this kind of development continues along Sandy towards 82nd Avenue.	6/10/2013 12:30 PM
134	More ethnic/racial diversity. I would love it if Scott School wasn't so terrible. It would be great if neighborhood kids could actually go to the neighborhood school.	6/10/2013 12:28 PM
135	- Coffee shop. - Higher end cocktail/wine bar rather than dives that are there now would be nice. (When meeting friends for drinks no one wants to come to my hood, unfortunately.) - More crosswalks on Sandy. - And I believe this is super important: better transit along Fremont! Nights and weekends are a necessity. One of the things that attracted me to the area was access to shops, restaurants, services in Beaumont. But if one is unable to access this area because the bus isn't running, it's not such a draw. - If we're dreaming, a small music venue, ice cream shop, food pod, nice brunch spot would all be great, too, haha.	6/10/2013 12:10 PM
136	Improvement in individual's care of their lawns/ homes.	6/10/2013 12:04 PM
137	Less crime! More bike access, traffic speed enforcement. A good coffee shop. More greenways. Sidewalks!	6/10/2013 11:56 AM
138	get rid of adult video store, G-Spot, Honeysuckles, and that other one. they are too close to Madison HS and attract undesirable people. some economic development of the Sandy/Fremont area to make it more "hip". install stop signs on the many mand 4-way intersections that have no stop signs at all	6/10/2013 11:54 AM
139	facelift of Sandy businesses, coffeshop hangout	6/10/2013 11:44 AM
